

Women Howling at the Moon

An invitation to this monthly gathering of diverse women change makers from Brisbane and beyond who come together for liberating conversations premised on courage, kindness and a shared commitment to a just and sustainable world.

Wednesday 17 May

6 pm at Trinity Place, 68 Hawthorne St Woolloongabba
(parking on site and wheelchair accessible)

May focus: claiming your next zone of Communicating Powerfully

Get below the stuck points to the distinctions and strategies that will make the biggest and most sustainable difference in generating new power and solutions. Leave with a plan and an empowering community of support to sustain change. The world needs the voice of women.

Registration includes networking, the evening's mini workshop; starters and a delicious main dish, non-alcoholic drinks, tea and coffee. Desserts are available to purchase, and wine to purchase or BYO. (All profits support the initiatives of a remote Aboriginal women's centre.)

Early bird until Monday 1 May: $40 / $35 concession. From 2 May: $50/$45 concession. Bookings close 10 May. Book at <http://bit.ly/1TeVcoP>
